

Black, Brown, &

KASHER

*Conversations Food
about Culture & Identity*

Featuring award-winning Chefs:
Fany Gerson, Pati Jinich, and Michael Twitty

Following a short introduction emphasizing the theme of multicultural Jewish, African American, and Latino foodways, audience members will interact with each chef in breakout sessions and hold intimate conversations on the significance of cooking to community life.

Thursday, November 29, 2018, 6pm

The African American Library at the Gregory School

1300 Victor St., Houston, Texas 77019

No charge to attend. Seating is limited. To RSVP, please send an email to: hpl.gregoryschool@houstontx.gov OR call 832-393-1526.

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON
JEWISH STUDIES

CPH Lecture Series

THE AFRICAN AMERICAN LIBRARY AT THE
Gregory School

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE Humanities

Generously supported by the UH Center for Public History, City of Houston, Houston Public Library, Humanities Texas, Gulf Coast Food Project, UH Modern and Classical Languages .