

Deborah ChenActivist, OCA-Asian Pacific American Advocates

Deborah Y. Chen, Esq. is a community activist with OCA-Asian Pacific American Advocates for 20+ years and an expert on SMWDBE Government Contracting/Supplier Diversity. Debbie started as a student leader at the University of Texas–Austin advocating for an Asian American Studies Center, hiring AAPI mental health counselors, and including AAPIs in scholarship considerations. A past OCA National Executive Councilmember and OCA-Greater Houston Chapter President, Debbie is the OCA-GH Civic Engagement Programs Director and Houston Metro Convener, serving on the OCA-GH Development, Programs, and AAPI Film Festival Committees, focusing on citizenship, GOTV, exit polls, Census, redistricting, youth, education, and leadership programs.