

Penny Shaw

Democratic Candidate for Harris County Commissioner, Precinct 4

Penny Shaw is an attorney in Texas and Florida, practicing in civil litigation for 18 years. She is a mother of four young adult children-all college graduates or currently pursuing degrees. Penny Shaw has been in business administration for 25 years and has started, owned, and managed 3 companies. Additionally, she is a U.S. Congressional human rights advocate, and has advocated for women, children, and human rights in Washington D.C. for 6 years.

Ms. Shaw is a native Texan and grew up in Houston; she attended Pershing Middle School And Lamar High School. She has been engaged in civic and community groups throughout her career and has been honored for the past 3 years for her ProBono legal work in the community.

Penny is the elected Democratic candidate for Harris County Commissioner, Precinct 4 and won the Primary Election by 75% of the vote. This seat has never been held by a woman and there are no women serving on Commissioners Court; Ms. Shaw seeks to change that in this midterm election.
